The black plastic K-Cup holder from the keurig single cup coffeemaker's filter assembly must first be removed before using the reusable coffee filter.

That said, I'm an established Coffee Snob in my own keurig coffee right and find the convenience of these brewers to be first rate.

We got a B50 3 years ago and it became the goto appliance after dinner and after the kids are in bed. It would also pick up MY slack if I failed to have enough homeroasted coffee at the ready. She likes candy coffee I have to have decaf in the evening, perfect appliance to do just that with a MINIMUM of hassle.
